DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Weinstein et al (2001/0026609).

Consider claim 21, Weinstein et al teach a collect callback system comprising a call-in dating service configured to: establish a communication link with a call source that initiates communication with the call-in dating service; initiate a collect callback option for the call source as a form of payment for a duration of a collect call between the call source and the call-in dating service; receive an authorization input for collect call payment from the call source, the collect call being bill to a phone number associated with the call source; communicate callback data to a switch that initiates the collect call via a second communication link to the call source; and receive the collect call for the call source via the second communication link that is routed through the switch (§ 0092-0094).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-20, 22, 24-30, 32-38, 41-46, 48-78 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 3/24/2006 with the RCE related to claim 21 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Regarding applicant argument that Weinstein does not disclosed of dating services. Accordingly, the examiner respectfully disagrees with applicant argument. Weinstein et al clearly disclosed that the invention might be implemented for dating services (see abstract and ¶ 0060).

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., the collect call link is for the source (the person that call the call-in dating service)) are not clearly recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).
